

Independent Monitoring for Quality Lackawanna/Susquehanna AE Summary 2016

Independent Monitoring for Quality

Making Everyday Lives a Reality

- Independent Monitoring for Quality (IM4Q) visits with adults and children age three and over who are supported by the Pennsylvania Office of Developmental Programs (ODP).
- IM4Q sends interviewers to talk to people who live in licensed community homes at least once every 3 years. Interviews are also conducted with people who live with their family, life-sharing families, independently, in intermediate care facilities (ICFs/MR), nursing facilities and personal care homes.
- Reports created from Independent Monitoring for Quality interviews are shared with provider agencies, administrative entities/counties, and the Planning Advisory Committee for the Office of Developmental Programs for purposes of improving peoples' quality of life.

- This information presents some of the findings from the 2015-16 report. For a full report please contact your administrative entity/county or go to the Department of Public Welfare (DPW)'s website at www.state.pa.us.

Choice:

Community:

Community

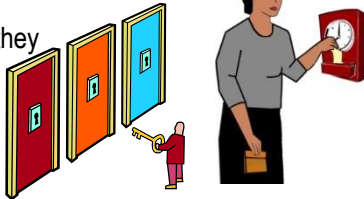

22% vote

93% go out for fun

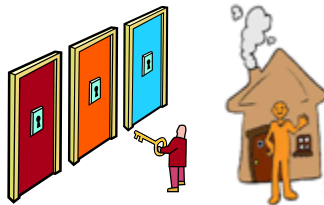

65% choose what they do during the day

20% go to worship weekly

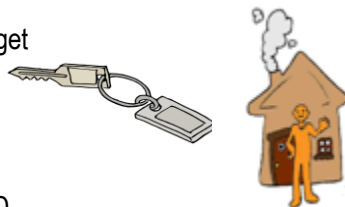

30% choose where they live

32% go to the mall weekly to shop

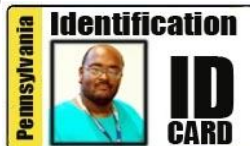

14% have a key to get into the house

36% go to a restaurant weekly

53% always carry ID

Happy*:

It is often found that people report being happy with whatever they have.

Relationships:

84% are happy, not sad, with their lives

72% talk to family when they want

88% are happy with their work

77% can see friends when they want

*Satisfaction research demonstrates that people report high levels of satisfaction with whatever they have.

Symbols were compiled from the following sources:
The Picture Communication Symbols™ ©Mayer-Johnson LLC. All rights reserved worldwide. Used with Permission;
ESL-Library.com/Red River Press Inc. All rights reserved worldwide. Used with Permission; and Google Images