

March is Intellectual Disability Awareness Month

The Lackawanna-Susquehanna BH/ID/EI program proudly introduces the inaugural 2022 Direct Care Champion Award!

This award recognizes the indispensable talent of Direct Support Professionals who tirelessly dedicate themselves to supporting individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities!

(Left to Right)

Robert Ames, Allied Services, Vice President Community Services

Miki Drutchal, LSBHIDEI, Director of Intellectual and Developmental Disability Services

Direct Care Champion Jean Ann Lance, Allied Services, Direct Support Professional

Patrick Quinn, Allied Services, Assistant Director Developmental Services

Michael Killeen, Allied Services, Assistant Vice President Developmental Services

(Left to Right)

Direct Care Champion Rachel Kania, Goodwill Industries, Direct Support Professional
Miki Drutchal, LSBHIDEI, Director of Intellectual and Developmental Disability Services

(Left to Right)

Michele Uhler, St. Joseph's Center, Program Specialist

Richard Kane, St. Joseph's Center, Director of Community Supports

Maryann Colbert, LSBHIDEI, Administrator

Direct Care Champion Michele Mandarano, St. Joseph's Center, Direct Support Professional

Ryan McConlogue

Miki Drutchal, LSBHIDEI, Director of Intellectual and Developmental Disability Services

Victoria Kelly, St. Joseph's Center, Administrative Assistant

March is Developmental Disabilities Awareness Month

The Lackawanna-Susquehanna
BH/ID/EI Program proudly
recognizes

2022
Direct Care
Champions!

Jean Ann Lance, Allied Services

March is Developmental
Disabilities Awareness Month

The Lackawanna-Susquehanna
BH/ID/EI Program proudly
recognizes

2022
Direct Care
Champions!

Rachel Kania, Goodwill

March is Developmental
Disabilities Awareness Month

The Lackawanna-Susquehanna
BH/ID/EI Program proudly
recognizes

2022
Direct Care
Champions!

Michele Manderano, St. Joseph's Center