

December 2022 Advocates Honor Beacon Specialized Living/ Keystone Community Resources' Jennifer Wolf & Meredith Bissland

"Leaders become great, not because of their power, but because of their ability to empower others" –

John Maxwell

The Lackawanna-Susquehanna BH/ ID/ EI Program congratulates Jennifer Wolf, Senior Coordinator of CPS and Employment Services and Meredith Bissland, Day Program Professional as the Advocates Honor recipients for the month of December 2022. Jennifer and Meredith are employed by Beacon Specialized Living/ Keystone Community Resources, a provider whose mission is to provide high quality, gentle, compassionate, evidence-based care to help people reach their goal and live rich lives.

Both recipients have been employed with Beacon/ Keystone for a total of 44 years, which demonstrates not only their commitment to the field, but also the dedication they have for the people they support. Jennifer started her career about 14 years ago, while Meredith joined the profession nearly 30 years back. Each touching the lives of those they support, by building opportunities for people to feel they have worth and experience meaningful lives.

As professionals in the field, each has led by example, which inspires others to follow. Jennifer has worked to ensure individuals receive quality programming based on the philosophy that all people have value and deserve choice. In addition, Meredith has created inclusive opportunities for individuals to give back to their community, fulfilling the feeling of purpose for those who participate.

Jennifer and Meredith, thank you for your commitment, determination, and intention, not only to Beacon/ Keystone and the individual's you work with, but also to our community.

Thank you for making a difference!

Together we can make a difference