The Lackawanna-Susquehanna BH/ ID/ EI Program congratulates Michele Uhler as the Advocates Honor recipient for the month of April 2023. Michele is a Program Specialist employed by St. Joseph's Center, a provider whose mission revolves around the core values of care, compassion, concern, and commitment. The agency provides individuals and families who have special needs, the opportunity to develop their abilities and potential to the fullest extent possible.

Michele started her career at St. Joseph's Center 10 years ago, working actively to assist people receiving Community Support Services. Throughout her time with the provider, she has exhibited a true willingness to assist individuals in need, at times living the job around the clock, tending to people's needs. It is actions such as this, that allow the individuals for whom she supports to trust and admire her, as it reflects how truly dedicated, she is to her role.

As a professional in the field, she models genuine leadership by ensuring staff are trained effectively and have a thorough amount of information for the individual they support, giving them the tools to provide the best quality service possible. Her attentiveness to detail, never goes unnoticed, as she makes certain the needs of all individuals within her program are met, protecting their health and safety.

Michele embodies what a Hero for Humanity is, by exemplifying the core values of St. Joseph's Center and having the courage to care for the individuals she supports, setting an example for others to follow. Thank you for your inspiration, commitment, and sincerity, not only to St. Joseph's Center and the individual's you work with, but also to our community.

Thank you for making a difference!
